DR. JOHN McLOUGHLIN HOUSE
Oregon City, Clackamas County
Oregon

HISTORICAL NOTES:

The McLoughlin house was built in 1846 as the home of Dr. John McLoughlin. It stands now in Oregon City Park, and is cared for by the McLoughlin Memorial Association. Mr. Fred S. Perrine is Secretary of this organization. ¹

MOVED FROM ORIGINAL SITE 1909.

Dr. McLoughlin surveyed Oregon City in 1829, while serving as the Hudson Bay Company's Governor in the Northwest. This city claims to be the first incorporated American city west of the Rocky Mountains. ¹

The house is the mecca for hundreds of admirers of the deceased fur trader, Dr. McLoughlin. ²
